

Information, Lodging & Meals

Class and housing assignments are filled in the order registrations are received!

Our conference registration is via an online process which provides immediate class confirmations and your choice of credit card processing or mailing in a check. Register early to get the best chance for your desired classes and housing. Links to the registration site can be found on our website. Our Details page contains class schedules, class/instructor information, general information about the conference, a raffle donation form, product information (you know you want this year's new shirt or vest!), items and supplies to bring, and maps.

Using the online registration form, select your class choices from unfilled classes and get immediate confirmation of your schedule. Overlapping classes cannot be selected and class sizes are limited. Once registered, you are responsible for reimbursing instructors for kits made for you. Signup sheets for classes with openings will be available all weekend. Approximate class fees are shown on the schedule. Please bring cash to pay the instructors. The schedule may be subject to change.

There are three room and board options for you: housing with meals, a RV site with meals or a commuter option with meals but no housing. Room and board prices are per person and include 3 nights lodging with linens, and 8 meals. You may choose single, double or triple occupancy for Olympic View or Mt Baker Village. Either single or double occupancy are available in the Cascadian Lodge.

The three lodging facilities are (single / double / triple occupancy, $$ per person):

The Olympic View Lodge provides 24 rooms with motel-style comfort. Each room has a private bath, a queen size bed and a single day bed with trundle. See it at Olympic View Lodge (399 / 330 / 286)

The second lodging option is Mt Baker Village with 28 rooms. Each room has a queen bed, four bunk-style singles, and a private restroom. See it at Mt Baker Village (399 / 315 / 286)

The third lodging option is Cascadian Lodge with 30 rooms. Each room has a queen bed, two single day beds and a sink/vanity. Central baths for both men and women are just down the hall, only seconds away. See it at Cascadian Lodge (330 / 286 / n/a)

If you prefer RV/Tent Camping, that option is also available. For everything from motor homes to dome tents, the RV/Tent Area offers 130 individual sites. Complete utilities, two bath houses, and a laundry are available for campers. See it at RV / Tent Camping (135 pp)

Great home-style meals are served buffet style in the Cedar Lodge Dining Room. You won't find better meals, service, or scenery at any other conference center in the Pacific Northwest. Dietary accommodations include: vegetarian, vegan, gluten free and dairy free, as well as combinations such as vegetarian/gluten free, or gluten free/dairy free. See it at Cedar Lodge (128 pp meals only if commuting) Thursday evening from 5 to 9 PM you can enjoy hospitality ($5 Subway meal on registration form), food and friends in the Program Center.

Those of you arriving Thursday can check in and pick up your registration packet in the Cedar Lodge Raffle Room beginning at 2PM. While you're there, be sure to drop off your raffle donations and buy winning raffle tickets as you register.
